Dear Client,

As we look back at 2021, it is important to take a closer look at your tax and financial plan. This past year had likely brought challenges and disruptions that significantly impacted you. Here are some issues to consider as we prepare to file your 2021 tax returns. Many of these provisions are from the American Rescue Plan Act that was enacted in March 2021.

- A third round of Economic Impact Payments up to $1,400 for each qualified recipient
- Increased value and automatic advanced payment of child tax credit for children under 18
- Individuals who do not itemize their deductions can take a $300 ($600 for joint filers) charitable contribution deduction
- Required minimum distributions from retirement accounts must be taken if age 72 by years end
- Unemployment compensation in 2021 is fully taxable
- Telecommuting impacts on state tax filings may affect your state income tax returns
- Popularity of virtual currency transactions has resulted in stricter reporting requirements

The Build Back Better Act is still looming in the Senate after being passed by the House on November 19, 2021. As this legislation continues to evolve and it passes, we would be happy to discuss the impact on your specific tax situation.

As many businesses have had to increase prices on their products and services in the past couple of years, we too are feeling the cost of higher operating costs, increased hiring activities and increased technology fees. Our fees will be increasing this year as a result. Any significant changes will be discussed with you prior to starting your return this year.

Attached you will find our annual engagement letter for your personal income tax filing along with the 2021 tax questionnaire. Please take the time to review these documents and sign and return them to our office.

Tax season office hours are 8am - 5pm Monday through Friday and 9am - 4pm Saturday. We are encouraging clients to mail or drop off client data and request a phone or virtual meeting with their tax preparer. We understand this is not possible in all cases and will hold limited in-person meetings, as necessary. Thank you in advance for your understanding of these revised policies.

The filing deadline for individual tax returns is Monday, April 18, 2022, except for residence of Maine and Massachusetts for which the due date is Tuesday, April 19, 2022. To meet this filing deadline, the information needed to complete your return should be received by us no later than April 1, 2022. Returns received after this date will be extended. If an extension of the time is required, any tax that may be due with the return must be paid with the extension.

Sincerely,

Dear Client,

This letter is to confirm and specify the terms of our engagement with you for the year ended December 31, 2021 and to clarify the nature and extent of the tax services we will provide. In order to ensure an understanding of our mutual responsibilities, we ask that all clients for whom returns are prepared to confirm the following arrangements.

We will prepare your individual federal and state income tax returns for the calendar year 2021. We are under no duty to review the information you provide to determine whether you may have a filing obligation with another state other than your state of residence or state of employment. If we become aware of any other filing requirement, we will tell you of the obligation and may prepare the appropriate returns at your request.

It is your responsibility to provide complete and accurate information required for the preparation of complete and accurate returns. You should retain all the documents, canceled checks, and other data that form the basis of income and deductions. These may be necessary to prove the accuracy and completeness of the returns to a taxing authority. You have the final responsibility for the income tax return and, therefore, you should review them carefully before you sign them.

We have provided you with a questionnaire requesting specific information. Completing this form will assist us in making sure you are well served for a reasonable fee. You represent that the information you are supplying to us is accurate and complete to the best of your knowledge and that you have disclosed to us all relevant facts affecting the returns. This will include the ownership of or signature authority over any foreign bank accounts and the ownership of any other foreign financial assets. We will not verify the information you give us however, we may ask for additional clarification on some information.

You should also know that IRS audit procedures will almost always include questions on bartering transactions and on deductions that require strict documentation such as travel and entertainment expenses and expenses for business usage of autos. In preparing your returns, we rely on your representations that we have been informed of all crypto-currency and bartering transactions, and that you understand and have complied with the documentation requirements for your expenses and deductions. If you have any questions about these issues, please contact us.

If, during our work, we discover information that affects prior-year tax returns, we will make you aware of the facts. However, we cannot be responsible for identifying all items that may affect prior-year returns. If you become aware of such information during the year, please contact us to discuss the best resolution of the issue. We will be happy to prepare appropriate amended returns as a separate engagement.

Our work in connection with the preparation of the tax returns does not include any procedures designed to discover defalcations or other irregularities, should any exist. The returns will be prepared solely from information provided to us without verification by us.

In no case will we disclose your tax return information to any location outside the United States, to another tax return preparer outside of our firm, or to any other third party for any purpose without first receiving your consent.

The Internal Revenue Code and regulations impose preparation and disclosure standards with non-compliance penalties on both the preparer of the tax return and the taxpayer. To avoid exposure to these penalties, it may be necessary in some cases to make certain disclosures to you and/or in the tax return concerning positions taken on the return that don't meet these standards. Accordingly, we will discuss tax positions that may increase the risk of exposure to penalties and any recommended disclosures with you before completing the preparation of the return. If we conclude that we are obligated to disclose a position and you refuse to permit the disclosure, we reserve the right to withdraw from the engagement and you agree to compensate us for our services to the date of withdrawal. Our engagement with you will terminate upon our withdrawal.

The IRS permits you to authorize us to discuss, on a limited basis, aspects of your return for one year after the return's due date. Your consent to such a discussion is evidenced by checking a box on the return. Unless you tell us otherwise, we will check that box authorizing the IRS to discuss your return with us.

It is our policy to keep records related to this engagement for seven years. However, we do not keep any of your original records, so we will return those to you upon the completion of the engagement. When records are returned to you, it is your responsibility to retain and protect records for possible future use, including potential examination by governmental or regulatory agencies.

By signing this engagement letter, you acknowledge and agree that upon expiration of the seven year period, we are free to destroy our records related to this engagement.

The returns may be selected for review by taxing authorities. In the event of an audit, you may be requested to produce documents, records, or other evidence to substantiate the items of income and deduction shown on a tax return. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of a tax examination, we will be available, upon request, to represent you. However, such additional services are not included in the fees for the preparation of the tax returns.

Our fees for this engagement are not contingent on the results of our services. Rather, our fees for this engagement, including tax planning, are based on time required, complexity of the return, plus any out-of-pocket expenses, at our standard hourly rates. Our fees are payable and due upon presentation of your tax filings.

Our services will conclude upon the earlier of (1) the filing and acceptance of your 2021 tax return (2) written notification by either party that the engagement is terminated or (3) one year from the execution of this agreement.

You authorize the use of e-mail and other electronic methods to transmit and receive information, including confidential information. You acknowledge that e-mail travels over the public Internet which is not a secure means of communication. Information transmitted via electronic methods could be compromised through no fault of Gomes, DaCruz & Tracy, P.C. We will utilize reasonable methods and precautions to protect the privacy and confidentiality of transmitted information. Please be aware that we offer secure and convenient portal access for our clients. If you are interested in accessing your portal, please call the office.

We have the right to withdraw from this engagement, in our discretion, if you do not provide us with any information we request in a timely manner, refuse to cooperate with our reasonable requests or misrepresent any facts. Our withdrawal will release us from any obligation to complete your return and will constitute completion of our engagement. You agree to compensate us for our time and out-of-pocket expenses through the date of our withdrawal.

If the services and terms outlined above are in accordance with your understanding, please sign on the next page designated for your signature (signed by both taxpayer and spouse if joint return) and return the original of this executed letter along with the enclosed questionnaire to this office.

Sincerely,
